Use these descriptions as instructions for making sounds.
Descriptions may be realised by any number of performers, using any sound sources, and for any duration.
Any distribution of the descriptions amongst the performers may be made.
Descriptions may be used more than once in a realisation.

Constant; Deep quiet and far away; Not nature but manmade; Powerful and throbbing a bit like a repetitive bass player

All descriptions relate to sounds heard on the Avon River Path near Chapel Pill Farm, and were provided by geocachers who found GC3TC1R. For more information on Geocaching, visit www.geocaching.com.

The instructions for the activity were:

sit quietly for a short period of time and listen on one of the sheets, describe one particular sound that you can hear with as much detail as you can do not include the source of the sound in your description, only how it sounds
the source should be ambiguous to the reader

Some descriptions were edited slightly to remove references to source sounds, but are otherwise unchanged.
